Private sector donations at Ministry of Health. KT/ Chor Sokunthea

Among those who made the donations were Cambodia Rice Federation, RMA (Cambodia) PLC, SCG Cambodia, SELA Pepper Co. Ltd, Courtyard Marriot Phnom Penh Hotel, Cambodia Investment Management Co. Ltd, DA&G, Tanncam Investment Co. Ltd, Baker Tilly Cambodia.

Several prominent individuals also came forward to donate in the fight against the coronavirus, which unfortunately is taking a toll on the Government's effort to "flatten the curve" with their proactive initiatives

The others include Senior Minister LY Thuch, Joseph Michael Couto, Salah Essa, Mark Seymour, Narumon Rinruangsin and Matthew John Roland Wells.

They donated 57 laptops, 10 standard printers, six vaccination card printers, 160 sets of PPE suits, 600 pieces of aprons, 400 temperature scanners, 200 boxes of non-sterile gloves, 20 blood pressure monitors and 5,000 disposable masks.

Also donated were 400 pieces of protection caps, 1000 pairs of socks, 200 pairs of goggles, 200 bottles of gels, four disinfectant dispensers, 10 bottles of disinfectant solution, and two units of customised pick-up units for vaccine transportation.
